

Senior Class Gift Committee

Volunteer Roles & Responsibilities

The mission of the Senior Class Gift Committee is to help build a strong future for Brown by encouraging classmates to give back through the Annual Fund. Seniors who give back show that they are passionate about Brown and want to make it a better place for future students. Volunteers help build class community and play a critical role in encouraging participation through recruitment efforts, peer-to-peer solicitation, and event-based fundraising. Opportunities for volunteer roles include Co-Chair, Class Leader, Class Volunteer, or Honorary Co-Chair.

Overall Roles & Responsibilities

- Demonstrate personal commitment to the Brown Annual Fund by making your own gift early in the year.
- Personally solicit classmates to join you as Annual Fund donors.
- Use the Brown Annual Fund Volunteer Portal to retrieve information, record your solicitation activity, and update Annual Giving staff on your progress.
- Recruit classmates to join you as committee volunteers.
- Participate in Senior Gift meetings throughout the year, sign up to table on campus, attend events, and correspond with other committee members and Annual Giving staff via email and text messages.
- Serve as an advocate for Brown and the Annual Fund.
