HOUSING

These neighborhoods are young alumni favorites.

Koreatown

“Easily accessible by the metro, still affordable compared to other parts of the city, and things stay open past midnight.”

Janet P. '12

Silverlake

“This is where I live—great restaurants and coffee, lots of hipsters.”

Michael R. '13

Echo Park

“Definitely up and coming. It has great restaurants and is pretty central to all fun things in LA.”

Diana G. '13

DINING & NIGHTLIFE

The best spots to kick up your heels and enjoy an evening with friends.

La Cita

“Hands down my favorite bar in LA! It’s so eclectic with a very Mexican feel, but it serves different genres of music, attracting diverse crowds.”

Diana G. ’13

Everson Royce Bar

“This is also one of my favorites. It has a huge patio and serves great specials throughout the week.”

Diana G. ’13

Eighty-Two

“Arcade and alcohol.”

Janet ’12

The Mayan

“A great club downtown with three dance floors.”

Diana G. ’13

MAKING NEW MEMORIES

Not-to-miss local experiences.

The Last Bookstore

“The most stunning bookstore I’ve ever been to. The second floor is mind-blowing: a literal labyrinth of bookshelves of old books and whimsical art.”

Michael R. ’16

Hamburger Mary’s

“...For drag queen bingo. It’s sassy + strong drinks + and your bingo ‘fee’ supports various charities; brunch is also another great option if you can’t make drag queen bingo.”

Janet P. ’12

Echo Park Lake

“Really pretty lake, great to take a short walk around. Also paddle boats are available.”

Michael R. ’16

City-wide

“Santa Monica Pier Twilight Concert Series every Thursday in the summer.”

Clare K. ’15

“KCRW summer nights (Santa Monica, Chinatown, or Pasadena)—it’s like an outdoor summer party and it’s free!”

Janet P. ’12
