Jemaa el-Fnaa Square in Marrakesh

Dear Graduates, Parents and Friends of Brown:

Join us on this specially designed small ship itinerary featuring the rarely offered combination of the sun-washed, off-the-beaten-track Canary Islands and the fabled cities of Morocco.

This exciting tour features spectacular opportunities to visit four UNESCO World Heritage Sites and small ports that larger cruise vessels often overlook, with an excursion included in every port. Cruise sea routes once plied by Phoenician and Roman galleys aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE DUMONT-D'URVILLE, a gracious and classic small ship carrying only 184 guests. Tour the timeless monuments of the dynamic yet ancient societies of the Spanish and the Moors. Contemplate the contrast of ancient and modern in exotic Casablanca, medieval Marrakesh and the spectacular imperial city of Fez.

Explore the historical capital city of Gran Canaria during the Las Palmas Pre-Program Option, and discover Moorish Casablanca and the treasures of Morocco on the captivating Rabat and Casablanca Post-Program Option.

The combination of this classic small ship—the ideal vessel to cruise the relatively short distances between the islands—and our exclusive itinerary is an excellent value. We will share this departure with alumni and friends from several other institutions, so I encourage you to reserve now, while early booking savings and space are still available.

Sincerely,

Faculty Lecturer

The Brown Travelers program strives to include a representative of Brown on each trip, and we will make every effort to provide an outstanding faculty lecturer for this departure. However, group travel is planned far in advance, and given the current very fluid nature of travel, we cannot guarantee confirmation of Brown faculty participation on this program. If for any reason we are unable to send an accompanying lecturer, please be assured that our tour operators all share our belief that travel should provide an opportunity to learn about the world in deep and meaningful ways, and the educational content of this tour remains very high.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Atlantic Ocean

CANARY ISLANDS

Menara Gardens, Marrakesh

Crossing Continents

At the crossroads of Africa and Europe, Morocco and the Canary Islands are vibrant blends of cultures, religions and people—weaving a tapestry of majestic scenery. Born of subterranean volcanic activity and sculpted by the elemental forces of wind and water, the Canary Islands were once thought to be the remnants of the lost continent of Atlantis, poised on the edge of the world. The bustling cities of Morocco showcase the intersection of the country's multicultural history and its modern progression, from its famous souks to its breathtaking mosques.

Moorish architecture

Caldera de Taburiente, La Palma

Santa Cruz, La Palma

DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

Depart home city

Day 1

Las Palmas, Grand Canaria, Canary Islands, Spain

Day 2

Arrive in Las Palmas, an attractive town founded by Spanish conquistadors that served as a port for ships sailing around the African continent in 1478. The largest town in the Canary Island chain and a cultural haven in the Atlantic, this lush island also produces grapes, avocados and tobacco used for cigars said to rival those from Cuba. Embark the ship and enjoy dinner on board.

Santa Cruz de La Palma

Day 3

Known as La Isla Bonita, “the beautiful island,” for its lushly forested mountain slopes set against a backdrop of bright blue skies and the azure waters of the Atlantic, La Palma holds an abundance of cultural and natural treasures.

Explore the old quarter of Santa Cruz and see its pilgrimage center and shrine of La Virgen de las Nieves (Madonna of the Snow), the island’s patron saint.

See sweeping vistas of Santa Cruz from Mirador de La Concepción in Breña Alta and discover La Palma’s geologic past with a visit to Mirador de La Cumbrecita, which provides dramatic views of the Caldera de Taburiente. Enjoy time at leisure in Santa Cruz and later, attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board.

Los Cristianos, Santa Cruz de Tenerife

Day 4

Travel through Vilaflor, the highest village in Spain, and the forests of La Esperanza to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Teide National Park, a wilderness of mineral-tinted rock, ancient lava flows and distinctive vegetation not found anywhere else. Gaze across the vast caldera of Las Cañadas (dormant since 1909) to the snowy summit of Mount Teide and enjoy a panoramic view of the Roques de Garcia.

After lunch at a local restaurant, visit the UNESCO-designated San Cristóbal de la Laguna, a beautiful university town established in 1496 that boasts rich history and extravagant architectural styles. Stroll through the typical 17th-century Canarian courtyards, which you will not find anywhere else in the world.

Day at sea

Enjoy a day at sea.

Safi, Morocco, for Marrakesh

Day 6

Built at the interchange of the Sahara Desert and the Atlas and Anti-Atlas Mountains, Marrakesh blossomed into the hub of the great Berber Empire. Visit masterpieces of Moorish architecture, including the exquisite Bahia Palace at the crossroads of ancient culture and luxury; the glorious Menara Gardens, which cover an area of 250 acres and are planted with olive trees; and the 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque, one of the most impressive sights in ancient Marrakesh. Explore the heart of Marrakesh’s markets, or souks, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the dramatic Jemaa el-Fnaa, “Square of the Dead.”

Casablanca

Day 7

Enjoy a panoramic drive along the fashionable Boulevard de la Corniche on an excursion to the cosmopolitan city of Casablanca, Morocco’s thriving cultural and commercial center. See elaborate Mauresque architecture, Mohammed V Square, United Nations Square and the impressive Hassan II Mosque—built on a promontory over the ocean.

Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to experience the captivating

A tannery in Fez

Koutoubia Mosque in Marrakesh

Bahia Palace, Marrakesh

sights and sounds evocative of Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman's Casablanca. Attend the Captain's Farewell Reception on board this evening.

Rabat for Fez Day 8

Experience the sights and sounds of Fez, the oldest of Morocco's imperial cities. This metropolis is a marvelous, carefully preserved imperial city that embodies the essence of the country—aromas, shapes, colors and a rich history make the city a part of the soul of an entire nation. Ancient embattlements still partially enclose the ninth-century, UNESCO-designated Medina of Fez, known as the "Athens of Africa" for its university—the oldest in the world. Visit the Medersa Bou Inania. Discover the history of Seffarine Place and see its 16th-century marble fountain, decorated with fleur-de-lys.

Casablanca/Disembark ship/Return to home city Day 9

PRE-PROGRAM OPTION

Las Palmas April 10 to 13, 2023

Explore historical Las Palmas, the capital city of Gran Canaria, where cobblestone streets and 15th-century colonial architecture tell stories of its iconic past. Walk in the path of Christopher Columbus in Las Palmas' old town of Vegueta with a visit to Casa de Colón, the house where the Spanish explorer is believed to have stayed in 1492 while repairing La Pinta before crossing the Atlantic. Experience some of the Canary Islands' rarely visited sites, featuring Teror's Neoclassical basilica, Our Lady of the Pine—which honors the legend that the Virgin Mary appeared on a pine tree in the center of the village—and a stop at the Gardens of the Duchess in Arucas. Accommodations for two nights are in the Five-Star HOTEL SANTA CATALINA.

Price per person, based on double occupancy: $645

Price per person, based on single occupancy: $845

POST-PROGRAM OPTION

Casablanca April 20 to 22, 2023

Discover Moorish Casablanca and the treasures of Morocco with visits to its fortified capital of Rabat, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the scenic, 16th-century port city of El Jadida. Explore Rabat's colonial architecture and picturesque kasbah with stunning ocean views. See the Royal Palace, home of the king of Morocco, and the mystical Hassan Tower. Travel to captivating El Jadida—one of the earliest Portuguese colonies in West Africa—and its original fortified Mazagan city center. Accommodations for two nights are in the Five-Star HOTEL HYATT REGENCY, centrally located in the Old Medina of Casablanca.

Price per person, based on double occupancy: $875

Price per person, based on single occupancy: $995
