80th Anniversary of D-Day

Eighty years ago, one of the largest and most complex invasions in history unfolded along Normandy’s coastline. It began on D-Day, June 6, 1944, when more than 160,000 Allied troops sailed for and landed in territory held by the Germans. Under the command of General Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Allied troops faced fierce resistance and sustained thousands of casualties, but they succeeded in breaking the German defenses and advancing inland to become the first Allied foothold on the mainland. A call to arms and psychological warfare from the beaches was memorable for its force. In the years since, the site has become a place to honor and remember.

Eighty years ago, one of the largest and most complex invasion of history unfolded along Normandy’s coastline. It began on D-Day, June 6, 1944, when more than 150,000 Allied troops landed by sea, securing the beaches and advancing inland to secure Paris. A period of psychological attrition, 80 years later, D-Day will be remembered forever as the moment when the tide began to turn against the Nazis.

Eighty years ago, one of the largest and most complex invasions in history unfolded along Normandy’s coastline. It began on D-Day, June 6, 1944, when more than 160,000 Allied troops sailed ashore, landing in a harbor held by the Germans. Under the command of General Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Allied troops faced fierce resistance and made a thrilling assault, securing the beaches and advancing inland to Breton Plains. A powerful psychological victory, this landing is remembered forever as the moment that World War II turned the tide against the Nazis.

Today, visitors can experience the same壮丽的景色 as they traverse the historic beaches of Normandy. From your base in the delightful town of Bayeux, you’ll embark upon a fascinating journey through time, exploring the region’s rich history and culture. With Brown Travelers, you’ll enjoy a seamless experience, from your reservation to your return home, ensuring you have the adventure of a lifetime.

Your itinerary has been carefully crafted to include eight days of exploration, with daily departures in April 13-20, 2024. The program information, discounts and pricing.
