BROWN

Dear Brown Alumni and Friends,

Greetings from College Hill. Inspired by Brown University's Open Curriculum, the Office of Alumni Relations is dedicated to providing lifelong learning and exploration opportunities for alumni, enriching our intellectual journeys. Through diverse programs and experiences, we curate impactful "moments that matter," fostering curiosity, connection, and belonging in our vibrant alumni community. Our alumni travel program embodies these values, offering enriching travel experiences worldwide.

This year, we invite you to immerse yourself in the historic gems and captivating beauty of southern Spain on a seven-night journey through Andalucía. Your home for the week will be a first-class, modern parador in Antequera, set amidst serene countryside scenery. From this base, you will embark on daily excursions that highlight Andalucía's unique heritage, showcasing a fascinating intermingling of cultures and religions.

You will marvel at the Moorish legacy: the courtyards and fountains of the Alhambra in Granada, the iconic red-and-white arches of La Mezquita in Córdoba, and the elegant Alcázar in Sevilla. Additional highlights include a stroll through Sevilla's colorful historic quarter, breathtaking views over El Tajo Gorge in Ronda, and an impassioned flamenco performance.

To deepen your appreciation of Andalucía's history and culture, our travel planners have arranged for knowledgeable local guides and insightful lectures throughout the journey. You will also enjoy the fellowship of traveling in a small group, with opportunities for personal exploration. Your professional Travel Director will manage all the details, allowing you to fully savor the delights of Andalucía.

Join fellow alumni in southern Spain for this enriching educational experience. Reserve your spot today!

Sincerely,

Zack Langway, '09
Vice President for Alumni Relations

Faculty Lecturer

The Brown Travelers program strives to include a representative of Brown on each trip, and we will make every effort to provide an outstanding faculty lecturer for this departure. However, group travel is planned far in advance, and given the current very fluid nature of travel, we cannot guarantee confirmation of Brown faculty participation on this program. If for any reason we are unable to send an accompanying lecturer, please be assured that our tour operators all share our belief that travel should provide an opportunity to learn about the world in deep and meaningful ways, and the educational content of this tour remains very high.

Tonight, get to know your fellow travelers at a Welcome Reception and Dinner at the parador.

Day 3 | Antequera

Ancient Antequera. The prehistoric Menga and Viera dolmens were built by farmers in the valley between 3500 and 3000 B.C. On a guided tour of this UNESCO World Heritage site, imagine the labor and skill involved in constructing these immense stone burial chambers. Then, embark on a guided walk through Antequera. Start at the Alcazaba, the 14th-century Moorish fortress that once guarded the city, where you'll enjoy sweeping views. Continue into the old town to admire its landmarks and stop for lunch after your walk.

Free Time: The afternoon is yours to plan.

Enrichment: Andalucía and the Moorish Influence. A local expert examines the lasting impact of eight centuries of Muslim rule.

Day 4 | Granada

The Palace City of Alhambra. Travel today to the Alhambra, a UNESCO World Heritage site, in Granada. This exquisite Moorish palace complex and fortress was constructed in the 13th and 14th centuries by the kings of the Nasrid dynasty who sought to create their own paradise on earth. Admire intricately filigreed courtyards and halls in the Palacios Nazaríes, walk through the fortress and stroll in the gardens of Generalife. Relax later over lunch at the Parador de Granada within the Alhambra.

Day 5 | Sevilla

Sevilla. Journey to the cultural heart of southern Spain. On a scenic/walking tour, see the centuries-old bullring and the Moorish watchtower near the river. Along your route, stop at the splendid Plaza de España, built in 1929 for an international exhibition, which features a canal and tiled alcoves representing the provinces of Spain. Next, visit the grand Real Alcázar, a medieval Moorish palace still in use today as a royal residence, and the stunning Cathedral of Sevilla, the world's largest Gothic church. Together, they have been named a UNESCO World Heritage site. Conclude with a walk in the charming Barrio de Santa Cruz and time for lunch on your own. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers for dinner at the parador.

Day 6 | Ronda

Ronda. Spectacularly set above El Tajo Gorge over the open countryside, Ronda is a showstopper and the largest of Andalucía's pueblos blancos, or white towns. Begin your guided walk at the bullring, Plaza de Toros, established in 1785. Stand in the arena and delve into the dramatic world of bullfighting at its museum. Later, soak up marvelous views of Ronda from the terrace of Casa de San Juan Bosco. Cap off your Ronda visit with a tour of the beautiful Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor.

 AHI Connects | Bodega Lunch & Tasting. Sample fine wines and enjoy lunch at a winery.

Day 7 | Córdoba

Córdoba. A UNESCO World Heritage site, Córdoba's mosque-cathedral, La Mezquita, contains the finest examples of Moorish architecture in Spain. While the mosque was built in the eighth century, the cathedral was erected within the complex in the 16th century after Spanish forces recaptured Córdoba in 1236. The mixture of Islamic and Christian decorative elements dazzles the eye, including the prayer hall of striped arches, the golden mihrab, the altar screen and the mahogany choir stalls. Afterward, see the Roman bridge over the Guadalquivir River, and walk along the Jewish quarter's winding lanes lined with whitewashed houses.

Free Time: Select a nice spot for lunch on your own in Córdoba.

This evening, join your group for a delectable dinner at a restaurant in Antequera. After your meal, appreciate the emotion and precision
